As an addendum to the regular Aces High Magazine issue devoted to the military helicopters, we offer you a special publication focused on one of the most famous military helicopters used around the world, the Mil Mi-24 Hind. Using the large 1/35 scale kit as the example, our editor Daniel Zamarbide guides you through the processes of construction, detailing, painting and weathering of a model of this legendary helicopter. The finished model is presented on a vignette containing a vehicle and figures, which creation is also thoroughly described.

To enhance your understanding of the subject, we also include a concise article dealing with the history and development of the Mil Mi-24, attractive colour profiles, and a comprehensive walkaround chapter, which comprises numerous photos of different variants of the Hind. In the last chapter you will read about finishing yet another Mil Mi-24 kit in a very special livery
